Licensee Education on Alcohol and Drugs Training For Alcohol Retailers in the City of San Bernardino

San Bernardino - The California Office of Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) will conduct Licensee Education on Alcohol and Drugs (LEAD) trainings each month between March and June 2012, for owners, managers and employees who sell alcohol in the City of San Bernardino. Completion of one of these trainings fulfills the requirement for Responsible Beverage Service and Sales (RBSS) training as required by the City of San Bernardino per SBMC 19.06.030(2)(B) et seq. Employees whose job includes the sale of alcohol and who have not yet completed this training are encouraged to register.

The trainings are certified by the State of California and include information related to state and local alcohol laws. Topics covered include liability, community standards, checking ID, identifying and refusing sales to minors, and identifying and refusing sales to intoxicated persons.

> Available training dates: March 12, 2012 * April 16, 2012 May 14, 2012 * June 11, 2012

Participants are encouraged to register by calling (909) 387-6288

LEAD trainings are scheduled from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the San Bernardino City Hall, located on 300 North D Street, in the basement conference room. Complimentary parking is provided on the 5th level of the parking structure next to City Hall. Participants will receive a 2-year LEAD certification card issued by ABC. Seating is limited; therefore participants are encouraged to register by calling (909) 387-6288.

These trainings are sponsored by the County of San Bernardino Department of Public Health in collaboration with the City of San Bernardino, and Alcohol Beverage Control to promote responsible alcohol sales and service.
